CLOTHING!

Clothing for Men and Boys has ever been, and is today, the most important branch of our vast business. In it is invested more capital and to it are devoted more thought and attention than all the other departments put together. It is thus that we have been able to easily maintain our undisputed leadership—undisputed except by some of our disgruntled competitors—in this city. We are essentially Clothiers. Our time and thought are not divided between this and a dozen other articles, however useful and necessary they may be. By concentrating our interest and endeavor on Clothing we have been able to build up and to hold the largest business in it that is done in this city. And our trade in this branch enormous quantities and to show a very than any of our would be competitors. We tained. FATE OF ADULTERY CASES

She Will Take Back Her Erring Darling and Try to Win Him Back to Righteousness—Other News.

Mrs. Fremont Dillon, who made com-plaint against her husband and against Cora Holmes for adultery, has asked the prosecuting attorney to discontinue the case, not for lack of evidence, but because she says she wishes to give her husband an other trial. She will live with him if he is willing and forgive the past. She was told by the prosecutor that she would not stand by the prosecution, and was advised not to make the complaint. The supreme court has decided that when the complainant in a case of adultery waives the case dropped it is the duty of the prosecutor to drop it. Mrs. Dil-lon, for fear she would not be able to say what she wished, addressed a written petition to the prosecutor to release her dear Fremont from the peril in which he was placed. The members of the prosecuting attorney's firm are very much disgusted with the turn of affairs, but are powerless to oppose Mrs. Dillon if she wishes to withdraw the complaint. It is said that Dillon's father has settled the trouble by deeding certain property to Mrs. Dillon.

Check the First Approach.

Of rheumatism, and further attacks may be escaped, if proper precautions against ex-position are taken, and there be no hereditary predisposition. Unfortunately, people who ultimately become chronic sufferers, too often neglect the trifling troubles and pro-motory stiffness which herald the advent of this agonizing affliction. Among the diseases for which Chamberlain's Stomach Remedy has been found efficacious this is one, and the medicine being perfectly safe, it is certainly to be preferred to drugs used for its cure, which are frequently useless, and nothing more or less than poisons. The substitution of this pleasant and pure blood purifier for medicines injurious to life in a "light" overdose, is a measure which may give relief to persons who desire to ob-tain relief safely, or who have failed to obtain it from the numerous pseudo remedies for this disease in the market.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whoop-ing coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. H. Mann of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, No. 58 Monroe street.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medi-cine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he con-cluded to try it. The result was imme-diate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel com-plaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, No. 58 Monroe street.
